2013 DINNER MENU

FISH Creek, Wisconsin

It was in 1910 that Mr. & Mrs. Jacob Barringer, (then) owners of the Barringer Hotel and presently known as the "C and C Supper Club," engaged architect and builder Matt Riley of Sturgeon Bay to design a retail summer ice cream shop for their daughters, Cora and Meta. The Barringer sisters had most recently suffered the loss of immediate family members in the tragic sinking of "The Hackley".

The shop was constructed on the north half of the hotel property and named "The Maple Tree Café". It was constructed of pine lumber purchased from the Wells Lumber Co. of Menominee, Michigan and brought across the ice to Fish Creek in the deep of winter, 1910.

The Maple Tree served vacationers who came to Fish Creek mainly by boat, and particularly those travelers of the Goodrich Steamship Line who's "Georgia," "Alabama," and especially the "Carolina," made Fish Creek a regular port o'call. The menu consisted specifically of ice cream and desserts. The loft, or second story, is considerably smaller than the first floor. It was used for private bridge parties for guests of the Thorp Hotel and Welcker Resort.

The Barringers operated the Maple Tree until 1940, when it was purchased by Roy E. Kinsey, a Fish Creek native. During the Barringer years, it was undoubtedly (and still is) the most unique structure on the Door peninsula. The Kinsey's renamed it "The Summertime" and they enlarged it to include a gift and coffee shop. After 37 years of operation by the Kinsey's, it was sold. The present owner, Terry Bolland, along with daughter, Heather, and son, David, purchased the Summertime in 1986.

As of 1984, it had been Door County's oldest gift and resort shop, and today is a fine dining establishment.

Terry and his outstanding staff welcome you to the legendary Summertime, and promise to do everything possible to make your visit with us an enjoyable experience. Reservations are accepted and appreciated for any size party. We welcome all of your comments.
